HURRICANE HARVEY

By Viktorija Briggs

We've all been watching the news and social media coverage of the extreme devastation occurring in Houston, TX. Some of us, myself included, have family and friends who live in the area affected by Harvey.

The pictures and videos posted online show the flooding at levels deep enough to cover highway overpasses, multi-story homes that only the roofs are visible, travel is only by boat - if at all, those stranded being rescued by professionals and caring private citizens looking for people and pets to save.

And the peak of the flooding hasn't even hit yet!

As one blogger noted, the wonderful effect that has come out of Hurricane Harvey, is the outpouring of love and care from everyone - regardless of race, religion, or sexual orientation. They are one people, Americans, in need of help and saving. There are many major corporations altering their plants to assist in some way. Budweiser itself has begun bottling water rather than beer in some of its plants; others are sending funds or matching funds. Following are some examples.

How Others Are Helping

(from al.com)
Tito's Handmade Vodka is matching American Red Cross donations up to $50,000.

Apple is partnering with the Red Cross to let users donate toward hurricane relief efforts through a link in its iTunes store.

Amazon has created a link on its homepage that allows customers to donate to Hurricane Harvey relief. Users can donate through the company's online payments service, Amazon Pay. There is also a "Red Cross Wish List" of products that people can buy and donate to those affected by the storm and the flooding, including power strips, extension cords and crib sheets.

Amazon and Whole Foods have pledged to match cash donations up to $1 million in total to the Red Cross for Hurricane Harvey relief. The Home Depot, Lowe's, PepsiCo, Google, Target, Starbucks, and Walmart have also pledged donations.

For those who are able, here are some sites that you can visit to assist the victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Other Assistance Sites

The YouCaring website has a funding page that for every Facebook "Share" from the webpage can raise $37 toward the Harvey Relief Fund, and so far, there have been 150K "Shares," and $1,479,523 raised by 18,734 donors. Their website is youcaring.com/victimsofhurricaneharvey-915053

Of course, there is also the Red Cross: redcross.org/donate/hurricane-harvey

SHERIDAN COUNTY COURTHOUSE Centennial CELEBRATION 1917-2017

By Viktorija Briggs

On Saturday, August 26, the Hoxie Masonic Lodge No. 348 AF & AM conducted the Courthouse Centennial Celebration at the Sheridan County Courthouse, which is the same Lodge that originally dedicated the Courthouse on August 14, 1917. There were well over 200 visitors in attendance who enjoyed watching the courthouse rededication ceremony by Hoxie Masonic Lodge No. 348, listening to The Main Street Singers directed by Bonnie Cameron, standing for the flag's raising conducted by the Scouts' Color Guard, and again later as they took the

Watching the Eclipse

By Lois Schulte

Harold Taylor may very well be the oldest Sheridan County resident to have traveled to see the total eclipse of the sun near Stapleton, NE. Along with his wife, Arvilla, and daughters, Lois and Karen, Harold traveled to Stapleton on Monday, August 21, to view this spectacular phenomenon.

They arrived early enough to set up a canopy, get out the food, meet the neighbors, and set up a friendly game of Mexican Train with dominos. Their chosen sight was the local Boy Scouts' designated spot just south of Stapleton on Hwy 83. The scouts provided each paying visitor with special eclipse glasses and bottled water. The day was perfect!

Chris Beasley and his wife, Debra Wilde, and their dog, Ruby, from Denver, CO, were folks who joined the Taylor fun. When the viewing had passed, Harold and his family enjoyed a picnic lunch, waited for the traffic to clear, and were soon on their way home. It was a great day enjoyed by all!

GIRL SCOUTS ADVANCE IN BRIDGING CEREMONY

By Viktorija Briggs

Sunday, August 27, 2017 was a special day for those advancing in the Hoxie Girl Scouts. Ellie Thummel Bridged from Daisy to Brownie, and Adleigh Ziegler and Clara Johnson Bridged to Jr. Girl Scouts in a special rite called the Bridging Ceremony.

The Bowen Scout House was brightly decorated with a colorful streamer wall as the backdrop to the balloon decorated white-painted pallets that were the stage for the Bridging Ceremony. Around the room were tables full of cakes, veggie trays, and boxes of Girl Scout cookies.

Girl Scouts is a great place for young girls to learn who they are and how they fit into society and their community. Learning to work with others, gain confidence in their own choices and decisions, volunteering that helps build character, and so much more, are all part of what being a Girl Scout is all about. What is learned during their Scouting experience stays with them throughout their life. There will be a Sign-Up Night coming soon. Don't let your girls miss out on a great, life-changing experience! To find out how your girls can join in the fun, contact Leslie Storer at 785-386-8195 or email ljbrown81@hotmail.com.

The Oelke Reunion

By Carol Junge

In 1987 the Oelke families arrived in Colorado for their first reunion. Now thirty years later we were again in the same general area of Colorado having our 11th reunion. There have been many changes in those 30 years. We remember other who were with us back then but are now resting in peace; life goes on. Some of the babies attending that first reunion now have children going to school. There were 45 family members present this year with the youngest being three months old and the oldest, the baby's great-grandpa, being 92 years old.

The thought of 19 people being in the same house gave concern to some of us. The amazing thing - it never did feel as if the house was too small even when all 45 plus 2 guests were present for the noon and evening meals. This first generation's job was to rest, enjoy, take in the fantastic view, chat, and become reacquainted with those 3 and 4 year olds who were in diapers at the last reunion.

The second, third and fourth generations spent their time cycling, hiking above timberline, golf, miniature golf, rafting, visiting a distillery, shopping at the outlet stores, playing pool, soaking in the hot tub and talking. On Sunday morning, the families attended churches in the area. One group attended a small church fill a fourth of the chairs.

After the evening meals at "House at Keystone Ranch" Janet Meitl had a children's devotion and singing. The adults could do the actions to the children's songs as well as the children. Because of the number of people, we usually had a couple games going besides card games. One evening we paired off to play a game where a word was said the participants had to think of a song with that word in it. Needless to say, the group became quite vociferous. There was discussion as to whether what they sang (???) was a real song.

There were four birthdays celebrated which fell between July 29 - August 2, the days of the reunion. One night, we acknowledged special number birthdays and anniversaries with a gift, cake and ice cream. This year Paul and Mary Ann celebrated their 65th, what a milestone.

Those attending the reunion agreed that Christy and Jennifer again did a great job of finding a gorgeous location (there was some huffing and puffing because of the 9,000+ altitude) and finding games that brought us to life. John and Esther did a great job of showing love and compassion which has been passed down through generations. What a blessing to be a part of this Christian family.

Those in attendance were Alice Oelke, Hastings, NE; Carol Junge, Sun City West, AZ; Janet Meitl, Dresden, KS; Ben, Angela, Andrew, Carsen and Ava Meitl, Kenesaw, NE; Kevin, Lisa, Bethany and Nathan Oelke, Van Meter, IA; Brad and Shelly Graf, Breanna Shirley and Jon Oelke, Ottawa, KS; Jori Graf, Manhattan, KS; Reggie Graf and Toby Ruder, Keggias City, MO; Avery Spresser and Austin Aspegren, Joplin, MO; Mike and Pam Bellow, North Platte, NE; Devin, Jalene, Bella and Lillian Oelke, Lincoln, NE; Bob Oelke and Time Harvey, Las Vegas, NV; Mae and Lori Ross, Denver, CO; JoAnn Oelke, Paul and Mary Ann Oelke, Donald, Kaylene and Jason Oelke, Mathew, Christy, Hadley, Brady and Miles Juenemann, Curt, Jennifer, Zach, Dawson and Dylan Spresser, all of Hoxie.

JENNINGS NEWS

By Louise Cressler

Saturday was a beautiful day weather wise for the Fireman's Fun Day. Early morning found the 5k run going up and down the streets. Health Fair was going on at the Sunflower Senior Center and the Craft Fair was held in the former Masonic Hall. Kolache sale also was at the Hall. Later, Bingo was played in the senior center. The Cake Walk and the Jennings City Library Book Sale were going on in the main part of the Community Hall. With the kids' games, noon and evening meal, parade, auction, and later in the evening the dance, there was something for everyone to do.

The Book Sale at the Jennings City Library on Fireman's Fun Day was a great success. We think book lovers really enjoyed taking advantage of stuffing lots of books into big boxes to lug home and sort through. They may have favorites, but will try wildly different books "just because" when there's an empty box to fill.

Jayla Rush and Teresa Connell won the jars of candy. They were incredibly good guessers or have x-ray eyes. The Bargain Box in Oberlin gave our library a wonderful generous donation that will be used for a new book shelf for all those new books added this year. If there is a carpenter with an interest (or a spouse that wants to get out of the house this winter), please stop in and discuss the ideas we have.

Many families had children, other relatives and friends visiting for the weekend and came to attend the Fun Day.

Cyndie Aumiller Wins Northwest Kansas Library System's Meritorious Service Award for 2017

By George Seamon

Cyndie Aumiller, Sheridan County Library Board Trustee and Librarian at Hoxie Schools, was the recipient of the NWKLS Meritorious Service Award for 2017. She received the award at the Annual Meeting of the Northwest Kansas Library System Full Board on August 9, 2017, which was held at the Mt. Sunflower Bed and Breakfast meeting room in Sharon Springs, Kansas.

About the Librarian of the Year Award

The Northwest Kansas Library System (NWKLS) "Meritorious Service Award" was first awarded in 2013. NWKLS staff examine various criteria when determining the recipient of the award with two main factors being "praise" and "esteem" for service to NWKLS and the recipient's local community.

Statement about Melany Wilks from NWKLS Staff

Cyndie is the school librarian at Hoxie City Schools, the board chair at Sheridan County Public Library, and a member of the NWKLS Executive Committee. Cyndie has risen to the challenge at the school of juggling dual roles as not only the librarian, but the preschool teacher. She has tirelessly served the Hoxie Schools for over 3-years. During her time, she has completely weeded and updated both school libraries. From the very beginning, Cyndie made it a point to work closely with the KASL group to improve and assimilate all of the most recent and successful programming being used in school libraries across Kansas. When NWKLS implemented the William Allen White grants, Cyndie had her students reading, reading, reading and applied for the travel grant to take her students to the award ceremony in Emporia. She has proven to be a leading force in school media in NW Kansas, it is only fitting she will soon serve as the KASL District President. (Mary Boller, Children's/Taking Books Consultant, NWKLS).

New Rotary President Has New Plans for Hoxie Rotary Club

By Rachel Farber

At the beginning of July, the Hoxie Rotary Club welcomed a new president, Mike O'Dell. Mike is the Chief Financial Officer of the Sheridan County Health Complex (SCHC). He came to Hoxie about a year and a half ago, after being encouraged by his brother, who lives in Colby, to come to the area in search of a position. After interviewing for the position, Mike felt he had an opportunity to make a difference in the community.

Once in Hoxie, Mike was invited to attend the Hoxie Rotary meeting as a representative of the SCHC. He felt it would be a good place to meet people in the community and business owners from town. He has learned that those working in the hospital care about and for the people of the community, while the Hoxie Rotary Club cares about the community itself.

As president-elect of the Hoxie Rotary Club, Mike attended training in Wichita. He came away with many ideas to help make the Club a better organization. He plans to work with the district governor to set Club goals and achieve them. One of the goals he and the club has is to increase membership by letting the community know what the purpose and the benefit is. Another is to promote the Hoxie Rotary Club. He plans to attend the Kansas State Fair and assist in hosting the Kansas Rotary booth. One of the reasons for this is to network with other Clubs and Districts to find out what ideas they have and which of these are being successfully implemented.

There are several membership drive ideas that Mike plans to present to the Hoxie Club over the next few months. Along with the plans to increase membership through networking at local events, he spoke of wanting to reach out to existing members to increase participation for new goals, objectives and strategies.

Mike would also like to implement at least one new community sustainable project that focuses on the environment which Rotary can work on, along with fundraising opportunities. He also hopes to complete some of the objectives set forth by the District and State Rotary, such as greater media exposure.

"As the president, I'm not only going to bring what the Rotary International brings to Hoxie, but really what Hoxie brings to Kansas Rotary, and as we move through this year, we will get back into what the purpose of the Rotary is," Mike concluded.

Jesus is a friend who walks in when the world has walked out.

HAMA

Hoxie Area Ministerial Association

SED Talks

I'm an unusual person. I like and enjoy things that most people do not. I am unusual even for my gender as I love cooking, conversation and classrooms. I stand out in a crowd with my strange hair, wearing socks with sandals and refusing to act "my age." But, is any of that bad? Is it actually inappropriate for me to be unusual in the ways in which I am?

What makes something good or bad, right or wrong, appropriate or not? Those are good questions and not easily answered. When we are talking about socks with sandals, it isn't very dire or important. But when we are dealing with the realm of the spirit, the consequences of being wrong are more serious.

And that's what the SED Talks are for. Spiritualism, Education and Discernment.

The Hoxie Area Ministerial Alliance (HAMA) has decided to host a series of "talks" on the subject of spirituality in our modern, multicultural and pluralistic society. We are being bombarded with questions about subjects the small, local churches of Kansas have never had to deal with before. And the consequences of the answers are big.

The SED Talks are designed to educate people on what the Bible has to say about things like Yoga, Eastern meditation, Reiki, Eastern medicine, acupuncture, horoscopes, and more. We will touch on subjects like apologetics, the biblical Spirit World, the various religions of the world, how to evaluate a non-biblical practice and even spiritual warfare. There will also be time at the end of each session, as well as a final session, fully dedicated to questions and answers from a panel of ministers in Hoxie.

The SED Talks will be on Sunday nights, starting September 10, at 7PM. Micah Howery (Christian Fellowship Church), Carl Dumler (Hoxie Christian Church) and Jake Schadel (United Methodist Church) will be the speakers and will rotate around each week. The location will also move around to the different church buildings, so pay close attention to your local church bulletin, as well as our Facebook page.

This event will also be broadcast on Facebook Live each Sunday evening, so be sure to tell your friends from other areas to "Like" our page and tune in each Sunday.

Our purpose is not to demonize anyone or to give excuses to judge others. These talks are designed to educate you on how to discern for yourself what is okay and what is not.

So, join us Sunday evenings, starting September 10 and going for 6-7 weeks, at 7PM to receive some Spiritual Education on Discernment.

"The flood you read about. The flood, and the ark landing on Mt. Ararat, surely."
"No, mister," she replied, "I ain't seen a paper for three weeks."

Prayer

"The proper way for a man to pray," said Deacon Lemael Kayes, "and the only proper attitude, is down upon his knees."

"No, I should say the way to pray," said Mr. Doctor Wise, "Is standing straight with outstretched arms, and, rapt and upturned eyes."

"Oh, no, no, no," said Elder Shaw, "such posture is too proud. A man should pray with eyes fast closed and head contritely bowed."

"Well, last year I fell in Hodgkins well, head first," said Cyres Brown, "with both my heels astickin' up, my head pointin' down. Ah! I made a prayer to God right then an' there. Best prayer I ever said. Yep, the prayingest prayer I ever prayed was standing on my head!"

A student went to the college psychiatrist and said, "I'll never be able to trust my parents again after the low, deceitful, sneaky thing they just did to me."

"What did they do?" asked the psychiatrist.

The student said, "I asked them to send me $600 for a set of encyclopedias - and they sent me the encyclopedias!"

"Darling," I said to my wife, "I have tickets for the theater."

"Oh, that's wonderful," she said, "I'll start dressing at once."

I said, "Yes, please do, honey, the tickets are for tomorrow night."

A traveling man one night found himself obliged to stay in a small town because of a washout on the railroad. He turned to the waitress with "This certainly looks like the flood."

"The what?" she asked.

Helpful Suggestions

Desserts for children should be planned with care and may be both delicious and appetizing, as well as easy of digestion. Figs and prunes are both highly nutritious and good for children, but they tire of them, served in two or three ways. As candy is so liked by the little people, the following suggestion may be used to satisfy that longing without feeling that the child is being injured. Take the stones from soaked prunes and add an equal quantity of figs, put them through the meat chopper, and use the water in which the prunes were soaked to boil with sugar, until a heavy sirup that will make a soft ball in water, is formed, remove from the heat and stir until creamy, add the chopped fruit, make into small balls, roll in powdered sugar, and set away to harden.

Buttermilk Pop - Heat a quart of buttermilk in a double boiler, when boiling stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour that has been rubbed smooth in a little cold milk. Stir and cook until the flour in thoroughly cooked and serve hot.

Jack Crawford

The way they make cherry pie in India may be interesting to us, and worth trying. Line a deep pie plate with pastry and put into it a quart of stoned cherries, fill the dish with molasses and sprinkle over the top four tablespoonfuls of flour, cover with pastry and bake in a moderate oven 30 minutes. Then brush over with beaten egg, sprinkle with sugar, and return to the oven to brown.

From The Golden Belt,
Grinnell
August 28, 1886

Attend the services at the Arlington tomorrow evening. Pumpkin pies are now in style. They are cut bias and laid in points.

Joseph and Charles Borough of Hagerstown arrived in the city the 23rd, and invested in a half section of land.

Two whopping big loads of lumber passed through town from Grainfield Saturday evening, to Mr. Mather's claim, to build a residence.

Still the boom goes on and the town keeps growing. Just north of Mr. Boswells house are being built two new buildings. The South Side booms in spite of hard times.

Mrs. T. Kunce has been quite sick for some time past, but we are glad to hear that she is much better today. Two weeks ago she gave birth to a bright, bouncing twelve pound boy.

Wm Brak brought some daisy turnips to this office Saturday last. By the way, Bill got "tied up" while down at Abilene, and never said a word about it. He has not even set up the cigars yet.

The "long felt want" (?) in this section of the country is to be supplied in the shape of a second newspaper in Grinnell. No prospectus has been issued, hence we cannot give name of paper, name of editor or date of publication.

Monday evening last some forty of our best citizens "walked in" on Mr. and Mrs. Vanover, completely surprising them. The evening was highly enjoyed till a late hour. Mr. Vanover is our popular Star grocery proprietor, and is about to move on his claim. We regret losing them from the society circle, even though it be but for a short time.

Jordan Tinsley, a colored gentleman, and an old resident near Oakley, also one of the first subscribers of the Belt, was in town yesterday. He is making himself a nice home and making many improvements on his homestead two and one half miles south-east of Oakley.

There will be a grand ball given at the Arlington House, Grinnell, on Wednesday eve, Sept. 1st. Every arrangement has been completed to make this the grandest event of the season. The best of musical talent has been secured, and a good supper will be served at a late hour. There is plenty of room to accommodate the large crowd expected. Tickets $1.50 per couple, including supper.

There is a good opening in Grinnell for a lumber yard.

Rev. Cheeney has almost completed a house on his claim which he will occupy about the first of September.

Miss Frone Summerson is now the regular agent at Menlo.

Remember the joint discussion at Adell on Sept. 10. Let's all go.

The threshers have been laid up two-thirds of the time lately on account of rain.

George Mellon, of Oakley, was killed by lightning last week while working in his field.

Grover Walker and wife returned today from their trip through the mountains.

A marriage license was issued early this morning to Albert Brooks and Miss Martha Patterson.

The Palladium directors will hold a special meeting Saturday for the purpose of considering the resignation of Editor Decker.

There will be a picnic and joint discussion between the republican and people's party, at Adell on Sept. 10, 1892. All republicans and alliance men within reach should attend and hear the issues of the day discussed. Hon. F. B. Dawes of Clay Center and other distinguished republican speakers will be present. The alliance will probably have Col. Harris there.

John Vedder went down the road Saturday night, returning Monday.

L. J. Walden, of Lucerne, was in to see us Tuesday. He says the P. P.'s are on the run in his neighborhood and everything is lovely.

J. B. McPherson and family are now "at home" in their new residence in the east ward.

Miss Amanda Brooks and Miss Alta Palmer returned Saturday from WaKeeney, where Miss Brooks has been taking medical treatment for the past three weeks.

County Attorney John Hedge will leave for Indiana on next Sunday to see a daughter who is very low with consumption. He will be accompanied by his daughters, Mesdames Robinson and Renoe. If able to travel the sick daughter will return with them.

Selden Notes

Grant Forbes is painting Mr. Worley's new store building.

Mr. Cantrall was a pleasant caller in our city Tuesday.

Miss Neva Patterson came from Colby Saturday. She attended Normal there this summer.

Mr. Brooks and wife made a pleasant call at Mr. Gregory's Sunday last.

Mr. Bob Cox got caught in the rain and had to remain until Monday morning.

Mrs. D. F. Andes boasts of a new carriage and she may be seen almost every day with a fair friend out riding.

Mrs. Charles Getner is rapidly recovering and is expected home in the near future. She has been at WaKeeney having a cancer removed from her hand.

Mr. Allen Cox, of Grinnell, recently went to Michigan to spend a month. We wish him a very pleasant trip. The ladies are lamenting his absence very much. No dance is complete without him.

Prominent Citizen

Accidentally Shot
Late Saturday afternoon Mr. F. A. Shields and family departed in their car for Edmond, Kansas, to spend Sunday with relatives and friends. As they passed through Lenora they stopped a few minutes and talked with friends, then proceeded on their way down the Solomon Valley Highway toward Edmond. Just as they were nearing the little city a tire blew out and Mr. Shields got out to fix it. He had jacked the wheel up and was reaching over the side of the machine into the bottom of the bed to secure an inner tube, and as it was dark - about 9:30 o'clock - he in some way in pulling the lap robes and blankets away which obstructed the auto accessories which he needed to mend the tire, discharged the hammerless shotgun which he usually carried in his car as he was fond of hunting, the contents of the deadly weapon entered the side of his abdomen and ranged upward. He fell back; the wife thought that another tire had blown out, until she heard a faint voice say, "I'm shot." She then jumped from the car and gathered him in her embrace but the end had come; he gasped once for breath and his lifeless form lay in her arms. It was a sad, sad moment, the children were frantic, but Mrs. Shields bore up bravely under so trying an ordeal. She succeeded in quieting the children telling them that their papa would be all right in a little while and sent one to a farm house nearby to give the alarm. Dr. Jaques came from Edmond and Dr. Ward was summoned from Lenora who hurried to the scene, arriving in a few brief minutes. Not knowing who was shot until he arrived, he was deeply pained and grieved to learn that it was his good friend, Mr. Shields, with whom he had conversed not a half hour previous.

Groundbreaking at Mr. Pleasant Baptist Church Held Sunday

In a special groundbreaking ceremony on Sunday, Aug. 30, the first spadeful of earth was turned for the new Mr. Pleasant Baptist Church building. A large group witnessed the event following regular morning worship of the 150 member congregation. Actual construction preliminaries were scheduled to begin Wednesday, Sept. 2, with staking out of the site and digging of the footing. The projected 78' by 118' frame structure, with exterior brick veneer will be situated approximately 75 yards west of the present location. It will be built on a 3.6 acre parcel of land adjoining the current property to the west. This was graciously donated by Rodney and Eleanor Martin.

Selden Happenings

The Selden Rose and Garden Club was held at the senior citizens building with Janice Kruse as hostess. It was voted to give the city of Selden money for trees for the city park as so many of them died this summer. We are to pick up trash on the highway Monday if it doesn't rain again as we had to postpone it last month because of the wet weather. Janice Kruse then gave a lesson on culture of peonies, which was very interesting and educational. Leona Vaughn then gave a lesson on the care of chrysanthemums, when they should be moved and when to pinch off the tops to make better blooms in late summer. We are not to pinch them later than June 15. There being no other business Janice served lunch.

The 26th Annual Jennings Firemen's Fun Day, always held the fourth Saturday in August, is now over except for the memories. The Jennings firemen and other volunteers deemed it a very successful day, along with those who come each year to support the firemen and the Fun Day, new faces were in the crowd. Many of them were former members of Jennings and the surrounding communities. The weather, always a concern in northwest Kansas, was an ideal August day. The day began with a flag-raising ceremony by the Jennings American Legion and Sons of the American Legion accompanied by a trumpet solo, To the Colors, by Jim Gallentine. Fifty-two runners, walkers and bikers gathered in front of the City Hall to await the starting gun for a 5K Fun Run organized by Mindy Fleckenstein. Participants were of all ages from the very young to older adults. The Health Fair and United Methodist Church Kolache coffee were also well attended. Amy Vacura, Norton, was kept very busy giving free massages. Thanks to the many bakers in the area, the Legion Bake Sale and the Cake Walk had a fine selection of items to win or purchase. The bake sale was sold out very early and the Jennings Cake Walk had more than the usual number of participants. Many people enjoyed Bingo in the air-conditioned comfort of the Senior Center. Jennings librarian, Nikki Rowison, reported over 50 persons came in to visit the library and take advantage of the opportunity to acquire used books for a free will offering. Teresa Connell, Dorrance, was the winner of the large "Guess the number of candies in the jar" and Jayla Rush, Colby, was the winner of the smaller jar. Mary Wahlmeier reported that approximately 75 persons visited and toured the Jennings Museum. New items of interest in the museum include many antique tools in the tool shed donated by a relative of Doyle Brown, a member of the Jennings Museum Board. John and Taylor Meitl reported a lot of interest from young and old in the Silky chickens and Nigerian Dwarf goats in their petting zoo. On the main street was Greg

Otter with his custom-made barrel train to start the day as he has done for many years. New this year was the W82TXT (Wait 2 Text) sponsored by Nex-Generation Round Up for Youth, Nex-Tech and Nex-Tech Wireless. This event involves driving a golf cart while attempting to text and drive and text. Fred Teel's Monster Truck was again in attendance and had many passengers of all ages. The Jump-A-Rama Inflatables, Colby, were a big hit as was their free cotton candy. The Giant Slide, sponsored by the Jennings Lions, Farm Bureau Financial Services, Tina and Gary Meitl, was busy all day. Also on Main St. were the Dunk Tank, the Jacob's Ladder, funnel cakes, snowcones and other fun events for kids. Approximately 100 persons visited the Craft Fair in the former Jennings Opera House/Masonic Hall sponsored by the Historic Building Preservation Committee. Kolaches were also available for purchase at the former Jennings Opera House/Masonic Hall. Local women baked nearly 200 dozen of the seven varieties of kolaches which sold out quickly. Kolaches may be available for purchase at the Highway 36 garage sales so watch this paper for details. The 1:30 parade had 40 entries including antique cars and tractors, floats, walkers and a 3-year old bike rider. There were six queen candidates. The beginning of the parade was impressive with area and local American Legion Riders and SAL and American Legion members in the lead. Peggy Ritter sang the National Anthem. The Children's Tractor Pull had 32 entries, ages four through twelve. Winners were:

4-year olds: Kinsley McEvoy - 1st; Kreece King - 2nd; and Hunter Fyle - 3rd.
5-year olds: Isaac Pattengall - 1st; Vincent Taylor - 2nd; Tate McKenna - 3rd.
6-year olds: Trenton Wahlmeier - 1st; Grady Breiner - 2nd; Gage Breiner - 3rd.

7-year olds: Owen Amlong - 1st; Jaren Adelman - 2nd
8-year olds: Austin Larrison - 1st
9-year olds: Jessi Wait - 1st; Cody Wait - 2nd; Koy Roach - 3rd
10-year olds: Maddie Arnberger - 1st; Wyatt Amlong - 2nd; Kira Adelman - 3rd
11-year olds: Eli Roach - 1st; Joshua Moore - 2nd; Jordyn Fleckenstein - 3rd
12-year olds: Rayanne Wait - 1st; Breanna Roth - 2nd; Jaren Adelman - 3rd
Eight teams entered the firemen's team barrel competition and was won once again by the team of brothers Eric and Jeremy Green. Winner of the girl's bicycle was Jessi Wait. Jessiah McDougal won the boy's bike. The bicycles and helmets were donated by the Jennings Fire Dept and EMS. After a meal of barbecued pork prepared by the firemen the six queen candidates were introduced to the audience. Kira Adelman was crowned 2017 queen by outgoing queen, Katie Carter. A 50/50 raffle conducted by Jennings ZCJB Lodge was won by Leroy Spreser who donated the money back to the ZCJB

Lodge. The lodge then donated the $174 winnings to the Jennings Fire Department. Raffle items donated by the fire department were won by: Steve Hartzog - TV; Mason Green - Tablet; and Austin Coryell - the Alexa Echo Dot. At sunset, the American Legion and Jennings SAL conducted a flag-lowering ceremony while Jim Gallentine played Taps. A large crowd attended the auction of an impressive lineup of items donated by local and area residents and businesses. The day concluded with a street dance with Mobile Music Express DJ's of Oberlin. Jennings Fire and EMS responded to three emergencies Saturday morning. The Jennings community is fortunate to have both fire and EMS services in the area. The Fun Day was also an opportunity for the community to show its support for the Jennings Fire Department and EMS. It was a Fun Day for all involved and reinforces the need for all the small communities to work together.

Twin Creeks Extension District to Hold Pre-Plant Update Program

K-State Research and Extension, Twin Creeks District, will hold a Pre-Plant Wheat Update Friday, September 1, 9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. to be held at the Norcatur Methodist Church Education Building.

With wheat production on the minds of producers, it is time to gear up for the 2018 wheat crop according to Keith P. VanSlike, Agriculture Agent for Twin Creeks Extension District. "Helping producers to answer timely questions about wheat planting is the objective. Some of our programs are short presentations and then open up for general questions." How did the varieties perform this year? How did they respond to the limitations? What are the production issues? And answers to many questions.

K-State Research and Extension Agronomist, Dr. Lucas Haag, NW Area Crops Specialist, will be on hand for discussing the crop in this program and will present the latest information on wheat production related to variety selection, disease management, and other planting time topics. Pre-registration is requested by August 31st. A minimum of 10 is required to host the meeting. NAFTA 2.0 Renegotiations - Round One Recap Government officials from the United States, Canada and Mexico met in Washington, D.C., August 16-20 for five full days of meetings covering rounds of negotiation topics. Subject matter experts presented proposals and comments related to various topics affecting the agriculture industry. The three countries have committed to an aggressive schedule to work through the negotiating texts. The second round of negotiations will reconvene in Mexico City from September 1-5, continue in Canada in late September, and return to the United States in October.

In a joint statement issued at the conclusion of the first round of talks, the three countries noted a commitment "to an accelerated and comprehensive negotiation process that will upgrade our agreement and establish 21st century standards to the benefit of our citizens."

In a statement at the first round of NAFTA negotiations, the U.S. Trade Representative Robert Lighthizer said, "the views of the President about NAFTA, which I completely share, are well known. I want to be clear that he is not interested in a mere tweaking of a few provisions and a couple of updated chapters. We feel that NAFTA has fundamentally failed many, many Americans and needs major improvement." Indeed, the President has threatened withdrawal from the deal and just this week remarked that we'll end up probably terminating NAFTA at some point. However, Ambassador Lighthizer and other leaders in the Administration have acknowledged that NAFTA has benefitted farmers and ranchers, many of whom count on Canada and Mexico as their largest export markets. The United States previously announced its negotiating objectives—jointly developed between Congress and the Administration—with respect to NAFTA. Among those goals are reviewing the trade deficit and other imbalances, rules of origin (particularly in the automotive sector), the inclusion of labor provisions in the agreement, rules against currency manipulation, redesigned dispute settlement, government procurement and anti-dumping provisions.

A History of Western Water Law Presentation at CCC

University of Nebraska Water Law Professor David Aiken will present "A History of Western Water Law" on Tuesday, September 5 at 7:00 PM in the Frahm Theater at Colby Community College. The talk is free and open to the public.

The lecture marks the first of the college's 2017-18 Max Pickerill Lecture series, and explores a timely water-related topic in conjunction with the Smithsonian Water/Ways exhibit, currently on display at the Prairie Museum of Art and History.

David Aiken has taught agricultural law, water law and environmental law for almost forty years at the University of Nebraska Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. He is a professor in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Agricultural Economics.

Aiken is the author of "Development of the Appropriation Doctrine: Adapting Water Allocation Policies to Semi-Arid Environments" (Great Plains Quarterly 1988). He has published numerous articles on water law and agricultural law, specializing in ground water management and agricultural nonpoint pollution control policies, as well as the tension between environmental protection and irrigation development.

His September 5 presentation will examine the historical development of water law in the western United States, how water and its scarcity has influenced economic development of the West, and western water policy challenges.

For more information, contact Dr. Linda Davis-Stephens at 785-460-5528 or Ann Miner at 785-460-4590.

without a strong agreement on the exact issues and number of chapters to include in the modernized and renegotiated agreement. For certain, the parties have a lot of negotiating text to work through in the coming months, and they are working against the clock to finish ahead of the 2018 midterm elections in the United States and the Presidential election in Mexico.

Soybeans Hit the Road in New Goodyear Tires

Checkoff helps bring innovative soy-based tire to market

This fall when Goodyear introduces its Assurance Weather-Ready tires for passenger vehicles, soybean farmers may want to pay attention to their newest customer. That's because this all-season, innovative line of tires was made possible in part by the soy checkoff. The tires feature a soy-based rubber compound, bringing forward yet another market opportunity for soybean oil and, in return, a profit opportunity for soybean farmers.

"Goodyear and the soy checkoff share something special: a commitment to innovation," says John Motter, United Soybean Board chair and farmer from Jenera, Ohio. "When we started working with them more than six years ago, it was just an idea, a way to build demand for soybean oil. Now, we have a tire that shows what soy can do on the road."

Goodyear's interest in soybean oil included a look at sustainability, a priority for many corporations throughout the United States; however, what they found was a competitive advantage - rubber compounds made with soybean oil remained soft at lower temperatures, leading to enhanced traction in dry, wet and winter conditions. Thus, the name WeatherReady.

"As we develop great products that anticipate and respond to the needs of consumers, soybean oil was one of the technologies enabling us to meet a challenging performance goal," said Eric Mizner, Goodyear's director of global material science.

A product advantage is something that is news to soybean farmers' ears, as this market is just beginning.

"Businesses looking to use soy, even if for sustainable purposes, want to see not only a price-competitive product, but one that functions the same or better than their original product," says Motter. "That's why the checkoff works with companies such as Goodyear to test soybean oil and confirm its characteristics, so we can increase demand for our product and ultimately increase our profit opportunities."

Goodyear's Assurance WeatherReady tire will be widely available in September 2017, offered in a wide range of sizes, covering 77 percent of cars, minivans and SUVs on the road today.

USB's 73 farmer-directors work on behalf of all U.S. soybean farmers to achieve maximum value for their soy checkoff investments. These volunteers invest and leverage checkoff funds in programs and partnerships to drive soybean innovation beyond the bushel and increase preference for U.S. soy. That preference is based on U.S. soybean meal and oil quality and the sustainability of U.S. soybean farmers. As stipulated in the federal Soybean Promotion, Research and Consumer Information Act, the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service has oversight responsibilities for USB and the soy checkoff.

WOTUS Repeal Public Comment Period Now Open

From Kansas Farm Bureau

President Trump recognizes the legal flaws and agency overreach embodied in the 2015 Waters of the U.S. (WOTUS) rule. In February, he directed the EPA to re-examine the rule and consider whether to repeal or revise it. In June, the EPA and Department of the Army proposed a rule to begin a two-step process to review and revise the definition of WOTUS ("waters of the U.S.") The agencies proposed to first rescind the stayed 2015 rule to maintain the status quo while they work to develop a new lawful and rational definition of "waters of the U.S."

The public comment period is now open, and we need YOU, to tell the EPA to support the repeal of the 2015 WOTUS rule.

Please submit comments before Sept. 27, 2017 by going to the Federal Register website (federalregister.gov) Tell the EPA the WOTUS rule has never been implemented because it was stayed by both a federal district court and a federal court of appeals due to its flaws and violations. Challengers raised numerous substantive and procedural defects in the rule, including that the rule exceeds EPA's statutory authority, imposes burdensome regulatory uncertainty, was finalized in violation of mandatory procedural requirements designed to ensure a well-informed result, and is otherwise unlawful. In all, the rule was challenged in multiple courts by all sides (31 states and 53 non-state parties, including environmental groups, state and local governments, farmers, landowners, businesses, and recreation groups). Encourage the EPA to move forward and ditch this rule once and for all, then go back to the drawing board and write a new rule that protects water quality without trampling the rights of landowners, businesses and the states.

FEMA: HOW TO HELP DISASTER SURVIVORS IN TEXAS

The compassion and generosity of the American people is never more evident than during and after a disaster. It is individuals, non-profits, faith- and community-based organizations, private sector partners, and governmental agencies working together that will most effectively and efficiently help survivors cope with the impacts of Tropical Storm Harvey.

Please follow a few important guidelines below to ensure your support can be the most helpful for Tropical Storm Harvey disaster survivors.

TO DONATE TO RELIEF EFFORTS

The most effective way to support disaster survivors in their recovery is to donate money and time to trusted, reputable, voluntary or charitable organizations.

Cash donations offer voluntary agencies and faith-based organizations the most flexibility to address urgently developing needs. With cash in hand, these organizations can obtain needed resources nearer to the disaster location. This inflow of cash also pumps money back into the local economy and helps local businesses recover faster.

Please do not donate unsolicited goods such as used clothing, miscellaneous household items, medicine, or perishable foodstuffs at this time. When used personal items are donated, the helping agencies must redirect their staff away from providing direct services to survivors in order to sort, package, transport, warehouse, and distribute items that may not meet the needs of disaster survivors.

Donate through a trusted organization. At the national level, many voluntary, faith- and community-based organizations are active in disasters, and are trusted ways to donate to disaster survivors. Individuals, corporations, and volunteers, can learn more about how to help on the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NVOAD) website.

In addition to the national members, The Texas Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (Texas VOAD) has a list of vetted disaster relief organizations providing services to survivors. Texas VOAD represents more than three dozen faith-based, community, nonprofit and non-governmental organizations.

TO PERSONALLY VOLUNTEER IN THE DISASTER AREAS

The State of Texas is asking volunteers to not self-deploy, as unexpectedly showing up to any of the communities that have been impacted by Hurricane Harvey will create an additional burden for first responders.

The National VOAD has also noted the situation may not be conducive to volunteers entering the impacted zone and individuals may find themselves turned away by law enforcement.

To ensure volunteer safety, as well as the safety of disaster survivors, volunteers should only go into affected areas with a specific volunteer assignment, proper safety gear, and valid identification.

At this time, potential volunteers are asked to register with a voluntary or charitable organization of their choice, many of which are already in Texas and supporting survivors on the ground.

The National and Texas VOAD websites are offering links to those who wish to register to volunteer with community- and faith-based organizations working in the field.

Most importantly, please be patient. Although the need is great, and desire to help strong, it is important to avoid donating material goods or self-deploying to help until communities are safe and public officials and disaster relief organizations have had an opportunity to assess the damage and identify what the specific unmet needs are.

Volunteer generosity helps impacted communities heal from the tragic consequences of disasters, but recovery lasts much longer than today. There will be volunteer needs for many months, and years, after the disaster, so sign up now.

Tropical Storm Harvey is still dangerous, with the potential to impact additional areas of Texas and Louisiana. As the situation changes, needs may also change in these areas. Continue monitoring traditional and social media channels to learn more.

News from the Outside

By John Liester

There were some nice fish caught last week. Several good catfish and wipers from Antelope. I haven't heard anything from Sheridan Lake, so I can't give any report on it. Norton has been slow. A few wipers are being caught on the surface as they chase after shad. I still haven't gotten to fish lately. Life is kicking my butt right now.

The clock is ticking for dove season! Friday at noon, I will be headed after them! Why is it you can find all kinds of 12-gauge ammo, but hardly any for 20-gauge? And when you do, the price is a lot higher? My daughter passed hunter safety and is ready to go!

I can't stress enough to be safe out there! I have been peppered several times by other hunters. Also, alcohol is a big no-no! When you can't tell a 250-pound man is sitting fifty yards away, you shouldn't be hunting. I will be scouting more for deer now, although all the corn out there will make them hard to find.

Not much else to talk about this week. Just please be safe out there and enjoy the outside!

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE Jumper

By Baxter Black, DVM Betty said her dad had a bull that kept jumpin' the fence. She wondered if I knew any surefire cures for fence jumpin' bulls. I asked her what they'd tried already.

"Well," she said, "One of Fred's friends (Fred was her dad) suggested tyin' a chain to the ring in his nose. So Dad did, a ten-foot log chain. Didn't faze him! That bull could stand flat-footed and jump a five-wire fence!"

"Dad improved on the idea by wiring a ten-pound window weight to the end of the chain."

"How did that work?" I asked.

"No better," she answered, "But it made him easier to track! Dad revised the idea by replacing the window weight with a gunny sack. The bull still jumped the fence but the sack hung up in the bob wire. At least they could find him the next mornin'."

Maybe, I thought to myself, we're hangin' the weight a little far forward. "So," I asked Betty, "What kinda bull is it?"

"Purebred Angus. Modern breeding, big and tall. I don't know his registered name but Dad calls him Jumper."

"Did you try one of those old fashion yokes?" I asked, remembering how we kept the milk cow from poking her head too far through a fence.

"That would sure make our cows uncomfortable when he went to breed one," she pointed out. "In all fairness, the neighbors don't object too much. He's a pretty good bull."

"Humm," I said, "You might could take advantage of that. If he's not breedin' your cows, maybe Fred could make a little off him when he's 'On the Road' so to speak."

"Like what?" she asked, her ears perkin' up.

"How 'bout a sign on his side advertisin' FRED'S MOBILE ALL-NATURAL INSEMINATION SERVICE. 'If you see this bull breeding your cow, please call BR 549 Covington, Oklahoma.'"

"I doubt it," said Betty, shakin' her head, "I'm afraid he's destined to be meat loaf if Dad can't keep him home."

"But what if Jumper finds out your intentions and escapes for good?" I asked.

"You don't know my dad! He'd find him eventually. He'd put out an APB. Then some mornin' I'd be settin' at the breakfast table in a stupor reading the label on a milk carton and there he'd be! Beneath his photograph would read: IF YOU SEE THIS BULL draggin' a ten-foot log chain in his nose, please call this number. He answers to the name JUMPER."

Swing Into Healthcare 2017: We Can-cervive!

Twenty-nine teams played in the second annual Gove County Medical Center charity golf tournament on Friday, August 11, at the Grinnell Cow Paddy Golf Club.

Golfers from all over Northwest Kansas enjoyed a perfect, sunny day as they golfed "with a twist." The Grinnell Cow Paddy Club added several fun games on the course, such as "tee off from a toilet," or "putt with your shoe." Players also searched the course for five "golden golf balls." Each golden golf ball provided the winner with a half hour massage.

The goal for the tournament was to reach $11,000.00 to pay for cancer rehabilitation exercise therapy for GCMC patients. Cancer brings so many burdens, financial and otherwise. Providing this special individualized therapy at no charge to the patient is a way GCMC can give back to the community. Thanks to the generosity of the many sponsors, donors, and golfers for helping reach the goal!

 flag down while Ed Rucker played Taps. The entire event was conducted under beautiful, warm weather with enough of a breeze to keep it comfortable. Most of the attendees were seated in the chairs provided, many were standing around the sides and back, and a few were seated on blankets or their own lawn chairs under the Crabapple trees.
 The Pie Contest started the day at 9 am, so the winners could be announced during the ceremony, and the pies made available for those who wanted to try their favorite choice later. The judges were Sheridan County Commissioners Joe Bainter, Vic Bielser, and Troy Dewey. At one point, while waiting to sample the next pie, Troy said he was "anxiously waiting for more pie!" He also said that he didn't have breakfast because he wanted to save room all for the pies! When the cream pies were being sampled, Joe said, "You have to vote the cream pies high or we'll get them in our face!" I guess they voted "right," because no pies were thrown.

 Sheridan County Attorney Harry Joe Pratt was the Master of Ceremony for the morning's events. Pastor Jake Schadel (Hoxie United Methodist Church) conducted the event's blessing. After which, the Scouts' Color Guard performed the Posting of the Colors. The Main Street Singers then sang the Pledge of Allegiance, and the National Anthem. County Commissioner Vic Bielser then read the Proclamation for the re-dedication of the courthouse.

 Once the pre-ceremonial activities were completed, County Attorney Pratt introduced the main speaker, Dr. Richard Mosier who talked of his life here in Hoxie, his five plus decades as a Mason, and many of his life achievements, as well as praising the level of community found in the businesses and residents of Sheridan County.
 The morning's activities went a bit more rapidly than expected so there was a period of time to fill. Harry Joe asked the singers to perform another song - or two. These were a very old lively country jig, and an old, old song about the prairie that I remember singing in elementary school fifty years ago.

 The Masons' re-dedication ceremony was a very formal affair, conducted by the Kansas Masonic Grand Lodge AF & AM. A prayer was recited before the ceremony began.
 It was very detailed and precise, bringing in the square, the level, and the plumb to prove the work was done correctly in replacing the original stone to the building. Also, corn, wine, and oil were poured into a cup that was set next to the building. Each person who used their tool or emptied their cup or pitcher spoke specific words required of each. Separately, each was important in its own right, as we all know the uses of each, but when put all together, the ritual ceremony brought in a much deeper meaning. Some there watching may not understand what a dedication ceremony truly is, or the history and tradition behind such rituals. The Masons are an ancient organization, as stated at the beginning of their ceremony, and their rites are filled with nuances and meaning that the casual observer may not see or understand. I found it beautiful.

 It was at this time, just prior to the Masons' exiting that Dr. Mosier was honored by the Masons for his dedication to the organization. He was surprised with a plaque, which he carried with him the remainder of the day. Late in the afternoon, inside the courthouse, someone asked him if that was the plaque he had received for his Masonic service? Dr. Mosier replied,

"Yes, it is," with just the hint of a small but proud smile, and an unconscious soft touch to the plaque. I could tell he was honored and touched to have been recognized in such a manner. As he should be.
 After the Masons ceremony was completed, Harry Joe introduced the Pie Contest winners Harriet Richardson, Agnes Winter, Marty Cressler, Roberta Shipley, Hailey Carder, Julia Colson, and Megan Carder. The Time Capsule Search Team was then called up for the Time Capsule Unveiling. There were quite a few of us: Jan Moore, Karen Lewis, Vic Bielser, Cyndie Aumiller, Gary & Roberta Shipley, Jeannine Taylor, Wade & Brodie Tremblay, Larry Cressler, and Dale Brown. The slab of marble that sits atop the buried time capsule is considerably smaller than the 4'x6' slab my husband and I donated a year ago, but it looked beautiful out there in the sunlight. The finished piece, as it is not yet carved, will be placed in an angled upright position for everyone to see as they enter and exit the courthouse. In one hundred years, 2117, it will be moved and the time capsule dug up and its contents revealed. At least they won't have the difficult time in finding it that we did!

After the Scouts' Color Guard retired the colors, with Ed Rucker playing Taps as they did so, everyone was invited to enjoy hearty meals served by Emily Campbell, Mama Deb's, and Brady's BBQ, and to make sure to have a piece of the pies from the pie contest, as well as a cup of free homemade ice cream!

After a good meal, the kids had lots of games to play, including a sack race, a 3-legged race, the board walk, bobbing for apples, and many more. The games chosen were games that could have been played at the original dedication ceremony a century ago. The winners were given celebration wooden nickels that could be turned in for free old-fashioned candy inside the courthouse.

There were tours of the courthouse that gave the history of the Sheridan County Courthouse. If you missed the tour, you missed a lot! Your courthouse has a very rich and interesting history. There are many stories to hear.

In the Sheridan County Library were historical reenactors giving presentations. I could not be in two places at once, so I apologize, but I did not get to see these, but I will say, Keven Hiebert's giant teepee was very cool! I had no idea they were so big; and from what I understand, it was a small one.

A tremendous amount of planning and work went into this event, and it went very well. I am very glad to have been able to participate on several levels; the planning committee, the marble slab donation, the program design, and the newspaper to report it all through. You have a real community here. You should be proud!

Be sure to send thanks to Jan Moore and the Sheridan County Historical Society staff and volunteers for their very hard work in putting on this great, once-in-a-lifetime event!

Was That the First Bell?

By Stacy Brown, District Extension Director, Twin Creeks Extension
 Where did the summer go? I'm sure that a lot of kids are asking themselves that. With the hustle and bustle of a new school year, we need to be even more aware of who is sharing the roads with us. There is never a more important time to slow down and stay off of your phone. Most schools have defined rules for dropping off and picking up children. Always be aware of and follow those rules. Children are more likely to be hit by cars near schools than any other location, according to the National Safe Routes to School program. Never drop your child off across the street from schools and do not double park for drop off. This limits visibility and makes it more likely that you will not see a child in the street. Consider carpooling as well to limit the number of vehicles near schools during peak times.

If you are a motorist, share the road with young pedestrians. Sometimes it seems like they are everywhere. According to research by the National Safety Council, most of the children who are injured or killed in a school bus related accident are ages 4-7 and they are mostly children who are walking. They are either hit by a bus or hit by another car upon loading or exiting a school bus. The National Safety Council recommends some precautions that motorists can take:

- Don't block the crosswalk when stopped at a red light or waiting to make a turn, forcing pedestrians to go around you; this could put them in the path of moving traffic
- In a school zone when flashers are blinking, stop and yield to pedestrians crossing the crosswalk or intersection
- Always stop for a school patrol officer or crossing guard holding up a stop sign
- Take extra care to look out for children in school zones, near playgrounds and parks, and in all residential areas

- Don't honk or rev your engine to scare a pedestrian, even if you have the right of way
 - Never pass a vehicle stopped for pedestrians
 - Always use extreme caution to avoid striking pedestrians wherever they may be, no matter who has the right of way
- As a motorist, you also have to pay attention to school buses. If you are following a school bus, keep a larger distance between you and the bus. This will allow you more time to react when their lights come on in preparation for a stop. It is illegal in all 50 states to pass a school bus that is loading and unloading children. The National Safety Council also provides the following tips for sharing the road with school buses:
- Never pass a bus from behind - or from either direction if you're on an undivided road - if it is stopped to load or unload children
 - If the yellow or red lights are flashing and the stop arm is extended, traffic must stop
 - The area 10 feet around a school bus is the most dangerous for children; stop far enough back to allow them space to safely enter and exit the bus
 - Be alert; children often are unpredictable, and they tend to ignore hazards and take risks.
- Just being aware and not being distracted as you drive can minimize the risks of an accident greatly. Remember kids are excited and energized to be back at school. They are talking to or looking for their friends. They are trying to see and be seen during these first couple of weeks of school. Be prepared for surprises. Let's be safe out there.

Discover New Adventures Through Girl Scouts

K-12 girls invited to join Girl Scouts, explore 23 new badges in outdoors, STEM

As students return to school, Girl Scouts of Kansas Heartland is inviting all K-12 girls to sign up for Girl Scouts and lead the way like a G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader) in their community and the world.

Girl Scout troops are forming across the state and preparing for an exciting year of girl-led adventures that help girls tap into their potential and develop the courage, confidence and character they need to be tomorrow's leaders. When girls sign up for Girl Scouts on kansasgirlscouts.org, they can find troops in their area, including troop meeting times, in Girl Scouts of Kansas Heartland's online troop catalog.

This year, girls can explore 23 new badges in the outdoors and STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) as part of Girl Scouts' largest programming roll-out in almost a decade.

With the introduction of 23 new badges, including robotics badges piloted by Girl Scouts of Kansas Heartland troops, Girl Scouts can design robots and racecars, go on environmentally conscious camping trips, write code, collect data in the great outdoors, try their hand at engineering, and much more.

The new Girl Scout programming builds girls' skills and encourages their interest in STEM and environmental conservation from an early age, increasing their confidence in these areas - in an all-girl environment where they can feel comfortable about trying new things, taking appropriate risks, and learning from failure.

A new report, The Girl Scout Impact Study, shows that participating in Girl Scouts helps girls develop key leadership skills needed for success. Compared to their peers, Girl Scouts are more likely than non-Girl Scouts to be leaders because they:

- Have confidence in themselves and their abilities (80 percent versus 68 percent)
- Act ethically and responsibly, and show concern for others (75 percent versus 59 percent)
- Seek challenges and learn from setbacks (62 percent versus 42 percent)
- Develop and maintain healthy relationships (60 percent versus 43 percent)
- Identify and solve problems in their communities (57 percent versus 28 percent)
- Take an active role in decision-making (80 percent versus 51 percent)

To join or volunteer, go to kansasgirlscouts.org, email info@gskh.org, or call 888-686-MINT (6468).

Commission Minutes 8/21/2017

Now on this 21st day of August 2017, the Board of Commissioners, Sheridan County, Kansas met in regular session with Chairman Troy Dewey presiding. Others present were Joe Bainter, Vic Bielser and County Clerk Heather Bracht.

Bracht brought up to the board that due to circumstances last week, the public health office was closed on Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. A request has been made to hire someone on a part-time basis who would fill in when there is a situation and no one is available to have the office open, answer the phone and make appointments. This person would be trained to schedule appointments and produce immunization records if needed. It would be a minimum wage job and again, would only be when there is an emergency type situation and no one is able to be in the office. The board approved placing a help-wanted ad for this position.

Dewey made a motion to approve purchasing 11 poster-style black frames for the architecture drawings of the courthouse. Bielser seconded the motion. Carried 3-0.

Dewey made a motion to approve the August 14, 2017 minutes as presented. Bainter seconded the motion. Carried 2-0.

Bracht discussed with the board the idea of being closed on Good Friday afternoon next year. The county employees will "earn" this half day by donating canned and boxed food items, money or personal hygiene items to the HAMA food pantry this year. The board is not opposed to the idea.

Joe Pratt, County Attorney, entered the meeting. He will research on adopting a Resolution pertaining to people going door to door selling things in the county.

Road & Bridge Supervisor Paulette Feldt entered the meeting. Work maps were distributed for the prior week. Dewey made a motion to purchase fuel from Bainter Oil, seconded by Bainter.

Carried 3-0. Feldt advised they were interested in purchasing a laser for the scraper. She will check out the cost for this item. Feldt will get prices for tractors, either used with low miles and warranty left or new. Several roads were discussed. Feldt was reminded that when there is time, the tree needs cut at the Historical Society. Feldt advised the board she would be out next week.

No further business. Dewey made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Bielser. Carried 3-0. The next regular meeting will be Monday, August 28, 2017 at the regular time and meeting place.

Attest: Heather Bracht, County Clerk, Troy Dewey, Chairman
